

photo by: Rowe's Family Farm

Join us on September 17!

visit us online for event details www.iowaforage.org/events

IFGC Pasture Tour & Field Day

5:00 PM | September 17, 2019

270th & Elder Berry Ave, Winterset

Schedule:

- 4:45 PM Check-in
- 5:00 pm Pasture and Farm Tour
 - Justin and Corinne Rowe
 - Planning Recovery Methods of Damaged Pastures
 - Stockpiled Grazing
 - Controlling Wild Parsnip, Queen Anne's Lace, and Other Pasture Weeds
 - Elyssa Trejo, Corteva Agriscience
- 6:30 pm Dinner Provided (Burgers!)
- 7:00 pm Group Discussions
 - Pasture Renovation
 - Utilizing Cover Crops from Prevented Planting Acres
 - Fall Seeding Forages
 - Pros and Cons of Alternative Cow Management Systems

Hosted by:

Justin and Corinne Rowe

EVENT IS FREE!

Please RSVP by
Friday, September 13
(MEAL PROVIDED)

RSVP ONLINE:

IowaForage.org/Events

About the Rowe Family:

Justin and Corinne Rowe's Farm - Fifth generation beef farmer Justin Rowe has raised cattle since he was 9 years old and today is the owner of Rowe's Red Cows. With his wife, Corinne, and two children, the Rowe family runs a cow-calf farm in Madison and Union counties raising Red Angus cows. Find them on Twitter @rowekidsandcows or Facebook @rowesredcows.

Note: All who attend receive a copy of the new Iowa State University Extension publication "Iowa Cow-Calf Production - Exploring Different Management Systems." This new publication features the results of a recent Iowa Beef Center project designed to identify costs, environmental impacts and best practices of Iowa cow-calf operations.

For Questions Contact: Justin Rowe 515-360-9010, Executive Director - Joan O'Brien 515-262-8323, Board President - Jeff Matthias 515-284-4370, Vice-President - Luke Wilson 319-883-1717 or at www.iowaforage.org/events. Thank You!